Chief Langford stated that Fredrick Mauigoa passed his PAT and will be attending academy on the 12th of July.

Finsen stated she spoke with attorney Howe; the Civil Service can update the eligibility lists as needed if there is proper public notice before hand. Howe had also stated that within our Civil Service rules the probationary period is 12 months after completion of the academy and there is no option to extend the probationary period.

Chief Langford requested Civil Service to review the copies of other Cities' Civil Service rules to see if there were any recommendations to updating our hiring process. Finsen will retrieve the copies and send them to the Commission to review for next meeting.
